A gateway to the University

Building on the UW Madison tradition of excellence in education, academics and research, Fluno Center serves as a gateway to the university. Fluno Center connects the University's vast resources to the professional community. Every year, thousands of professionals from industry, government, and nonprofit organizations participate in continuing education programs taught by the University's diverse, world-class faculty.

Composed of Multiple Unique Spaces

Fluno Center combines collaborative classroom technology with ambiance of a comfortable, relaxed residential setting. The building houses 100 overnight guestrooms, four classrooms, eight breakout rooms, Mendota Room, Monona Room, Howard Auditorium, Skyview Lounge, Oros Dining Room, fitness center, business center, and Smitty's Study Pub. 17K square feet of meeting space in all.

For Comfort and Harmony

The Center's interior reflects the design principles of Frank Lloyd Wright. A lifelong learner and innovative designer, Wright was dedicated to creating total living and learning environments. The simplicity and harmony of the furnishings help create an atmosphere focused on creative, collaborative learning.

The natural elegance of the Arts and Crafts era harmonizes with Wright's design principles and is evidenced throughout the Fluno Center by quality craftsmanship and a decor that combines prairie style furnishings and the original lithographs of designs by Frank Lloyd Wright himself.
